5. Business

a) Updates

- Coordinators were not able to drop the text in the event since last week, on that Palak advised to mail regarding the issue to the Manager who is present during the event.
- In the recent central meeting, the decision was made related to the swag kits and food bank that it would not be possible to deliver these things to each student. The only way it can be done is by organizing a pick-up facility at Newnham Campus.
- The Manager position at Seneca@York is open to the public. Those who meet the requirements are eligible to apply for it.
- VP Palak Chawla also confirmed if the new mail extension for SSF is valid. Along with that, she also mentioned the spam emails that everyone in the council has been receiving. She further added that it had been reported to the ITS department, and they would soon take action for the same.
- Palak also showed us the chart discussed in ACC containing Fall 2021 enrolment data. Thousand three hundred eighty-two students have enrolled this term in different programs setting the highest record, as per the day ten stats.

b) Council's Presence

- Specific changes were made in deciding the date for Meet and Greet that used to happen on Monday once a month. To give a fair chance for attending the meeting, it can be any day from the weekdays, and those who are available during that time can represent their campus.
- Palak Chawla also said coordinators to register themselves in the events during their working hours.

c) Other Business

- VP Palak Chawla told us to keep our schedule free during study week for the leader's training. She also mentions filling out the survey and says some good ideas as they will be helpful in the future.

- The wonderland tickets were supposed to be discounted, but the price was not that different on particular dates. Palak said that she would send an email to Roel and President Ritik about the ticket price.
