6. Member Reports

a) Newnham

Palak Chawla provides a verbal report.

b) King

Dina Yehya provides a verbal report.

c) Seneca@York

Oshin Lamba provides a verbal report.

In future, members are asked to provide a written report prior to the meeting.

7. Club Committee Update

Jasleen provides a Club Committee Update.

- Currently, 40 sanctioned clubs with a total of 1,433 students registered
- Club promotions are being considered
- Club forms will be updated
- Sanctioning of clubs is to happen within 30 days of receipt of the Club Application. Support will be provided to clubs to help with the process

Ritik asks that a written Club Committee Update be provided to Central Level members prior to meetings.

At the next Central Level meeting, goals for the Clubs Committee will be created. Focus will be to address the remainder of the school year. Feedback should be provided to either Steve Mattar or Jasleen who will take back to the Clubs Committee.

8. Financial Report

Mario provided the financial report (preliminary) to members prior to today's meeting. The budget provided is for the summer and fall semesters only and are based on the SSF continuing to provide services via on line. No information is currently available regarding the winter 2022 semester. A question and answer period taking place. Any additional questions should be e-mailed to Mario and Nick.

9. Indigenous Support

Discussion takes place on how to best address and acknowledge the current indigenous residential schools developments. It is suggested that Mark Solomon be contacted who will be able to provide information. Dina will also do research and bring forward to the Central Level for consideration.

10. SSF Committees

Resulting from the previous All Council Meeting, along with a meeting with SSF Managers, four SSF short term committees are being suggested:

Food Bank
Class Representative
Travel Subsidy
Fee Options

Three Council members (one from each campus), along with Ritik Sharma will form each committee. The names of the Council members being assigned to committees will be sent via e-mail. Mario will provide the names of the Managers who will be on each committee.

At this time, the Chairs of each committee will be as follows:

Food Bank – Oshin Lamba
Class Representative – Dina Yehya
Travel Subsidy – Palak Chawla
Fee Options – Ritik Sharma (The three Vice Presidents will sit on this committee as well as Mario Di Carlo)

The SSF Cares committee (long term) will be reformed. All three Vice Presidents are welcomed to join the committee along with two Council members). Dina Yehya will Chair the committee.

11. Other Business

a) Laurel Schollen

Laurel Schollen is retiring from the college. The SSF will be donating funds for a bursary in her name.
