6. Agenda Items:

- Updates from central by Dina
- New posters, new business cards
- club updates – US-based company contract for 3 years for the website and the implementation time will be 8 weeks, till then clubs are sanctioned. No number is available on students who participate in clubs. There should be one event per club as a rule. Budgeting based on appreciation point system based on active people in the club.
- Topics for ACC – Requesting to discontinue the compulsory Seneca uniforms to be purchased from library or lower the prices.
- Final Frosh cancellation.
- Welcome back party in October
- Using CRM- Council Feedback - we do not have log in details
- Shuttle bus budgets not approved by college yet
- English language is compulsory
- SSF attire during SSF hours
- SSF assistance should be scheduled ahead of hours in events

- Iranian students will get an extension in assignments and counselling support if needed.
- Budget allocations for future global issues to be determined.
- Volunteer program – feedback from council for positions.

- Events

- Navratri -food feedback was amazing, good opportunity to meet friends with such events as students are back on campus after an ended period of online education – international students need social support in a foreign country and so, events like these help them with their new life here.
- Hispanic Heritage – great turnout, amazing hosts and involvement was heartwarming with students dancing along, food was amazing, and a student gave emotional feedback saying that it reminds them of home.
- Geocaching – No swags from SSF present.
- Focus groups – consistency maintained
- Pakistani and Philippines students' orientation happened only in NH campus
- Virtual events – Harry volunteered, and the turnout was extremely low and in conclusion that it is a waste of money.
- Students who have hybrid programs will be considered in person – for future reference of student capacity in events.

- Points by Ritik

- Uniform
- Professionalism in all areas of work
- No guests allowed in the office
- Office hours separate than from events for the council members. No need to attend all the events.
- Email VP for change of hours.
- Only council members are allowed during class visits and previous mistakes should never be repeated.
- Respect each other's domain and do not cross boundaries.
- Inform VP about all your class visit scheduling and update in the calendar.
- Motivation by Ritik – everyone gave more working hours and appreciation for the council. Ritik mentioned not taking pressure.

- Points by Harry
  - Counselling services are slow and take 4 days to respond. Harry mentioned a student sending him long paragraphs of betrayal after he helped a student to manage her depression. She had attachment towards Harry while he was being professional.
  - Dina's statement – “if you think it is heavy, it could be an emergency situation in which case- we have to bring it to central”
  - Harry's reply to Dina- “concern got handled as it was a personal matter”
  - Ritik's Reply - “if you share personal information in meeting then it is not acceptable and professional.”
  - Harry – he declined to say anything further.
  - Ritik said OK.
