- If they wish to have students participate in podcasts or any other activities, they can reach out to us through email. We will then post on our social media platforms to inquire if any student is interested. We will communicate with the Marketing department to get some of the materials posted on our account.

b) Winter Event brainstorming.

Feedback from students for the Winter Semester is the foundation upon which we are building our events. We have also agreed to collaborate with other departments at Seneca for the Winter Semester and will send a list to Charanpreet to confirm our intent.
